COMMUNISM.

Sensational Report by the Seattle U. S. Grand Jury.

EXISTENCE OF A SECRET ORDER

Scientific Socialists with Headquarters in San Francisco Plotting for a Reign of Anarchy [illegible]

[illegible] The United States grand jury [illegible] returned [illegible] George [illegible] [illegible] the return which has [illegible] The revelations [illegible] highly sensational [illegible]

[illegible] a treasonable [illegible] Workmen's [illegible] calling themselves [illegible] Scientific Socialists. The headquarters of the [illegible] San Francisco [illegible] with all its branches is [illegible] theory [illegible] practice [illegible] creed [illegible] robbery [illegible] murder. Its [illegible] is the overthrow of our government and the erection upon its ruins of a so-called socialistic commonwealth. The first move [illegible] the common wealth is [illegible] property and the policy pursued [illegible] control of all labor [illegible] and [illegible] the Knights of Labor [illegible] officers of all labor organ[illegible] the Scientific Socialists [illegible] discontent among [illegible] to stir up on all occasions [illegible] strife and [illegible]

ON THE SOUND

[illegible] the Pacific coast was selected as more favorable ground on which to start the movement for the overthrow of the government [illegible] branches of this organization were established at Seattle, Tacoma, Olympia and other points on Puget sound. Agitation of the Chinese question was to be made at once as a pretext or cover for the treasonable operations of the band of scientific socialists. The labor organizations were [illegible] to the main body of the members systematically worked to promote the treasonable objects and purposes of the "Scientific Socialists." All disturbances and outrages on Puget sound for the past [illegible] months arising nominally from agitation of the Chinese question were really fomented, guided and produced by this infamous association. The real aims and designs of this association have been studiously kept from the knowledge of the real workingmen of labor organizations.

[illegible] Scientific Socialists as is declared in their secret and confidential instructions sent out from the executive center in San Francisco and which were laid before us aim to destroy private ownership in houses, lands, mines, machinery and all kinds of property. To this end they announce that once they are established in power the first [illegible] will be burn all books wherein the titles of the persons to lands are recorded. The legislative, executive and judicial departments of government are to be supplanted by public functionaries. These functionaries are in the name of the people to control every affair of life and to regulate and operate all industries. Money is to [illegible] and its place filled by labor notes. The merchandise, manufactured articles, raw material and machinery now on hand are to be confiscated and distributed under direction of the [illegible] The printing press is to be under like control. Every affair in life is to be superintended by government. In brief the individual to be absorbed in the state.

It needs no philosopher to understand that such system is a gigantic despotic corporation more [illegible] than the world has ever yet seen, that to destroy individuality and merge it into the state is to [illegible] honorable aspiration, individual effort, and will in the end uproot the home, make man a [illegible] destroy the civilization of the nineteenth century and finally reduce man to savagery.

INSTRUCTIONS FROM HEADQUARTERS

The Scientific Socialists, or Red Internationals of the International Workmen's Association, are as shown by unmistakable documentary evidence before us [illegible] from the executive headquarters under the charge of the secretary Sussman and Daniel [illegible] Montgomery avenue, San Francisco, secretly instructing the misled ignorant and brutal [illegible] in the means of [illegible] giving dynamite, how to seize armories and military stores, how to prevent the departure of troops from central points, to preserve order in the centers of insurrection and how to imprison and destroy [illegible] of property and influence.

To accomplish this end it is held essential to instruct its members to be particularly active in labor organizations. "Every white card [illegible] of its degrees ought to be in fact a leader. If possible he should control some trades union or organization, moulding it carefully into such shape that it may be of use in time of struggle." So reads a secret circular of its faction.

This red handed body of assassins have settled on our portion of the Union as the point of attack. They say in their secret circular: "The Pacific coast particularly by reason of its peculiar position, its natural wealth, its position is such that a few determined men could isolate it from the balance of the world [illegible] and the agitation already started over its whole area is peculiarly fitted to the first [illegible] to the [illegible] work when the time for that work shall come."

This grand jury is composed of farmers and laborers. We are all laborers and have sprung from the loins of the laboring class. With the honest sons of toil we sympathize. We have deemed it to be our duty to call thus publicly and under our oath of office the attention of our fellow laborers and fellow citizens to the danger ahead, believing that it needs but to be exposed that from it as from pestilence will flee all honest sons of toil. Even in the past six months have uncovered the aims and purposes of bodies of [illegible] amongst us organized for the destruction of the government and [illegible] upon its laws and seeking to hoist the red flag of communism in place of the flag of the republic; men who come among us from nations whose laws tend to protect the few and oppress the many; they are in our midst clothed with the favor of American citizenship, like so many wild animals turned loose, seeking to destroy all that tends to the elevation of the individual, to the security of life and property. These men have been suffered so long to flaunt the red flag in our faces they [illegible] themselves all powerful and with the boycott and dynamite [illegible] [illegible] of foreign [illegible] are seeking to destroy our constitution and laws and introduce anarchy [illegible] Our people are slow to anger and [illegible] but whenever [illegible] the past few months our constitution has been endangered and our laws [illegible] violated by secret bands of scientific socialists the true [illegible] with one accord came to the front to aid the constituted authorities in the due administration of the law.

ORANGEMEN ATTACK A FUNERAL

BELFAST, June 6.—The funeral of Curran, the young man who lost his life by drowning during the recent Orange Catholic riot, took place to-day. The body was followed to the cemetery by a procession of 10,000 Catholics. A body of Orangemen threw stones at the procession and the Catholics in retaliation made an assault on the Orangemen and drove them away. A number of shots were fired. One man was stabbed and several persons were cut on the head. Finally the police succeeded in restoring order [illegible] smashed the windows of the Broadway [illegible] factory. There was some further disturbance [illegible] in the evening. Philip [illegible] John Leathe and Alexander Stewart, fitters, [illegible] arrested on charge of rioting on Friday [illegible] Curran. James McMurray [illegible] has been arrested on a charge of firing a [illegible] procession to-day

CHAMBERLAIN CONFIDENT

LONDON, June [illegible].—In an interview last night Mr. Chamberlain said that the defeat of home rule was certain for he knew his followers were reliable. He had never reckoned on Mr. Pease as a follower. There were twenty or thirty others who were doubtful and who were not included in his list. He expected a majority of thirty against the bill. He was not convinced that [illegible] would be dissolved inside of a month but he was [illegible] for an election contest.

EASTERN NEWS ITEMS.

DANGER OF A RIOT AT [illegible]

CHICAGO, June [illegible].—It is feared to-night that the [illegible] strike [illegible] which have been in progress at [illegible] iron and steel works for several days [illegible] may result in serious riot to-morrow. On Friday the Rock Island railway company decided [illegible] move [illegible] cars of rail which stood on a side track [illegible] [illegible] places of the strikers. It was determined that these cars should not be moved [illegible] [illegible] with the business of the company [illegible] [illegible] to prevent the moving of the cars [illegible] of the tracks and as fast as the police [illegible] would move some from in front of the engine they would take places further on. [illegible] violence but as the police would not [illegible] the women they were [illegible] passed without a single car [illegible] moved Yesterday the same scene was repeated but a [illegible] force of policemen was on hand and the women were much more excited. They [illegible] the approach of the police marched [illegible] their rights and went [illegible] threw stones and tore up a number of rails of track. [illegible] police were not quite so gentle [illegible] They used clubs occasionally, and [illegible] was able to make some progress with the [illegible] The men had mostly remained [illegible] but as the excitement increased they came to the assistance of the women and a number were arrested. No one was injured but when the men [illegible] were over a very bitter feeling was present [illegible] of the men being in a decidedly [illegible] and the women frantic. To-day it is learned the road will make another effort to [illegible] its cars to-morrow and that the police department will apply an additional force of men [illegible] is awaited with no little anxiety.

END OF THE STREET CAR STRIKE

NEW YORK, June 6.—At 10 o'clock this morning every street car line in the city was in operation excepting those on First and Second avenues. The [illegible] of these lines loitered about after all the other workmen had taken out cars. The following notice has been posted at the offices of the Second avenue lines:

"The employes of the Second Avenue railroad company are hereby notified that unless they resume work on or before Monday, June [illegible] their places will be considered vacant and new men will be employed to fill them. Competent men who may be engaged will be guaranteed steady employment. WM. S. THORN, President"

This notice had not been announced five minutes before one of the strikers' pickets hastened with the news [illegible] executive committee [illegible] [illegible] the cooler headed men began to [illegible] the question of going back to work without [illegible] a messenger came from the executive committee with permission for them to resume work. Then the men went to President Thorn and [illegible] they were ready to go to work on Monday and [illegible] 20 cars were again started. The roads are all running as usual to-night and all cars in Brooklyn have been running as usual.

SUIT BY THE OREGON AND TRANSCONTINENTAL

NEW YORK, June [illegible].—Suit was begun in the [illegible] yesterday by the Oregon and Transcontinental [illegible] against Winslow, Lanier & Co., [illegible] Morgan & Co. and Drexel, Morgan & Co. of [illegible] for the recovery of a large amount of stock of the St. Paul & Northern Pacific railway company received by these firms with incidental [illegible] and also for a large amount of money which is claimed to be due the company from these firms. The company asks that the scheme for increase of the capital stock of the St. Paul & Northern Pacific be treated as null and void, and demands from the three firms 20,000 shares of stock with all dividends paid on it and [illegible] for all moneys received by them [illegible] bonds. Plaintiff also asks that a receiver be appointed to hold the bonds that have not been issued and unexpended proceeds of bonds already sold that defendants be restrained during the [illegible] of the suit from selling the remaining bonds or from disposing of the proceeds of those already sold

RESIGNATION OF POWDERLY

NEW YORK, June [illegible].—A private dispatch was received in this city at a late hour last night, containing news that Powderly had resigned his position of general master workman of the Knights of Labor. The telegram stated that the resignation was to take effect on Monday and that his place [illegible] immediately filled. No reason is assigned for Powderly's action but it was hinted that his resignation was the outcome of the [illegible] Home Club element into the executive board. The news caused a sensation among [illegible] of labor organizations in New York. [illegible] universally deplored it and predicted [illegible] results to the order from the loss of its trusty leader. Trades unionists affected to see in [illegible] indication of weakness in what they [illegible] a powerful opponent but at the same time [illegible] that the home [illegible] Powderly's resignation would be [illegible] [illegible] the trades unions and the Knights of Labor

INFANTRY CAPTAIN DROWNED

DENVER, June [illegible].—A special from [illegible] [illegible] says: In crossing, a soldier outfit near [illegible] in the Grand river to-day Capt. Murdock, Sixth infantry, was drowned. The soldiers were going [illegible] the [illegible] mountain country to establish a post and while endeavoring to cross on the ferry the [illegible] broke and Capt. Murdock, expecting the [illegible] to go across on the rocks in the canyon, caught [illegible] wire cable and was drowned. The soldiers [illegible] succeeded in landing her safely on the [illegible] side with [illegible] loss

[illegible] AND NUT WORKS BURNED

LEBANON, Pa., June 6.—The works of the Pennsylvania Bolt and Nut company, one of the largest [illegible] in the country, were destroyed by fire [illegible] Four large brick buildings were [illegible] with all their contents, embracing a large [illegible] of finished stock and valuable machinery. The loss is about $100,000 and is covered by insurance. About 700 men are thrown out of work. The cause of the fire is unknown

THE EDMUNDS UTAH MEASURE

An Appeal for the Chinese from Missionaries in California—President and Mrs. Cleveland go to Church—Notes

WASHINGTON, June [illegible].—In the house of representatives the week will open after the [illegible] bills to-morrow with actions [illegible] rules and pass various bills making appropriations for the erection of public buildings [illegible] called to call up the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill on Tuesday [illegible] it is now probable that its conductors will [illegible] [illegible] first taken up the Pacific railroad extension bill, which comes over as unfinished business. It is probable that the [illegible] the bill occupied with the legislative [illegible] during the remainder of the week, but if any [illegible] after its passage, Mr. [illegible] [illegible] the house to consider the naval appropriation bill.

Measures which are the [illegible] [illegible] in the senate during the coming [illegible] [illegible] stated [illegible] [illegible] There is likely [illegible] contest over the election [illegible] Senator Miller as chairman of the committee on [illegible] which [illegible] bills and [illegible] this [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the house [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] of the senate [illegible] respect of [illegible] [illegible] post office [illegible] is expected to give rise to an interesting debate [illegible] controversy [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] which [illegible] bill, the appropriation committee expect [illegible] bring it for action during the week, the agricultural and army appropriation bills.

The Northern Pacific forfeiture bill and the bill repealing the pre-emption and timber culture laws are special orders for dates already past and by virtue of this fact are entitled to consideration before any other measures except appropriation bills on the calendar.

Should there be any time not consumed in discussion of the measures above named, it is expected the house bill to forfeit certain lands granted to the states of Mississippi, Alabama and Louisiana to aid in the construction of railroads, and Senator Hoar's bill to provide for inquests under national authority will be called up. Hoar has also given notice of his purpose to call up before the end of the week a resolution providing for a constitutional amendment to change the time for expiration of the Presidential term.

THE EDMUNDS UTAH BILL

It will be Reported Favorably to the House, with Many Changes

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The house judiciary committee to-day agreed to report favorably the Edmunds anti-polygamy bill with many amendments, some of which are of a radical nature. The bill as it came from the senate compelled the lawful wife of a person accused of polygamy to testify against him. The committee propose to amend the bill in that respect, so as to make the wife a competent witness but not to compel her testimony [illegible] to permit her to testify as to any confidential matter contrary to the rule of common law.

The change in the statute of limitations in the bill as it came from the senate is stricken out and a second section of the bill relating to attachments against witnesses is modified so as to authorize the issue of such attachments only when it is necessary as shown by the oath of two credible witnesses.

The section requiring a record of all marriages is retained, but the fifth section, which authorizes the examination of private records of marriages, is stricken out.

The section prohibiting female suffrage is retained intact.

A material change is made in the section that authorized the appointment of fourteen trustees to act in conjunction with the trustee of the Mormon church in administering its affairs. In its place the committee has inserted a section [illegible] [illegible] the act of incorporation of the church and dissolving it.

The charter of the immigration fund society is also annulled and the society dissolved and it is made the duty of the attorney general to proceed in the supreme court of the territory to effect the dissolution [illegible] the debts and dispose of the property of the society according to the laws of equity.

The bill provides penalties for the crimes of adultery, incest, polygamy and polygamous association and cohabitation between the sexes, the last named in the same terms as is proposed in the constitutional amendment submitted by the [illegible] [illegible]

The office of the territorial superintendent of schools is abolished, and a new office is created in its place to be filled by the commissioner of schools to be appointed by the governor.

The provisions of the original bill touching dower and recognizing the claims of the first [illegible] are retained.

An additional section gives the president power to grant amnesty as to all crimes created by this [illegible] as well as the original Edmunds act.

All laws in reference to the militia of the territory creating the Northern legion are annulled and all general officers of militia are required to be appointed by the governor by and with the advice of the council, while the legislative assembly of the territory is authorized to pass laws providing for organization of militia subject to approval of congress.

The bill makes the council of the territory to consist, as now, of thirteen members to be appointed by the president by and with the advice and consent of the senate of citizens resident in the territory, one to be selected from each district as now provided by law.

It is provided that the chief officers of the territory shall be appointed by the president and confirmed by the senate, and the minor officers by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the council.

To each religious society or denomination is given the right to hold, through trustees appointed by the county courts of the territory, ten acres of land in town and fifty acres in the country for uses of worship and for the residences of ministers, priests or religious teachers, but it is provided that no such society shall besides these hold other property in money value than $50,000.

It is provided that all laws granting water-rights or herding rights on any part of the public domain to any person or corporation shall be annulled and declared void and the attorney general is directed to enforce this provision.

Every male person in the territory is required to appear before the clerk of the probate court in the county where he may reside and register his full name, state whether he is married or single, and if married the name of his lawful wife, take an oath that he will support the constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and especially the laws in respect to the crimes defined in this and the original Edmunds act, and that he will not directly or indirectly aid or advise any person to commit such crimes. No person not so registered or who shall have been convicted of any of the crimes specified, or who shall be a polygamist or associate or cohabit polygamously, or who shall not take oath, shall not be entitled to sit on any jury or hold any office in the territory.

The bill as amended will be reported to the house on Monday.

MORMONS [illegible] IN SWITZERLAND

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The United States consul at Basle, Switzerland, writes to the department of state that the Swiss government is becoming seriously alarmed at the great number of converts the Mormon church is making among women of that republic. He says Mormon missionaries have been working in that field for years. They have established mission schools and are educating children by hundreds in the doctrines of the Mormon church. The Swiss authorities have written to their minister at this place asking him to inquire of Secretary Bayard if this government will regard it as an unfriendly act on their part if they shall break up the schools and drive the Mormon missionaries out of the country.

STANFORD AND THE CHINESE QUESTION

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Senator Stanford has worked among the senators in behalf of the Chinese indemnity bill. He thinks the government should pay such losses the same as a railroad company is compelled to pay for lives lost and property destroyed through negligence of its employes. He believes the passage of the bill will have a good effect in commanding to a greater degree the respect and confidence of the Chinese government and thus facilitate future negotiations to prevent Chinese immigration.

MR. AND MRS. CLEVELAND

They Attend Church in the Little Mountain Town of Oakland

DEER PARK, Md., June 6.—The president's first Sunday on the crest of the Alleghanies dawned bright and clear. Col. Lamont and wife arrived on an early train from Washington and were driven at once to the executive cottage where all will be quartered during their stay. Breakfast was taken shortly after 9 o'clock and about an hour later the party started for Oakland, six miles off. The party consisted of President and Mrs. Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Lamont, Ex-Senator and Mrs. Davis and two children, and John W. Davis, President Garrett's first assistant.

The quaint mountain village of Oakland was alive with people who came from miles around to catch a glimpse of the president and his bride. The pretty little Garrett memorial church was the center of attraction and groups of rustics attired in Sunday raiment stood around the door. Inside there were as many people as could be accommodated. The chapel was decorated with flowers, and an extra large choir was in attendance.

IN THE CHURCH

At 11 o'clock the presidential party entered and were ushered into pews reserved for them on the right of the pulpit. As they were seated the choir sang "Here is a Bird to you Mountain." The pastor, Rev. Dr. Foulke, gave out the hymn "Behold what Condescending Love," and after it was sung proceeded to baptize an infant daughter of Capt. [illegible], which was by a singular coincidence named Frances, though not intended as a compliment to Mrs. Cleveland. The little girl bore herself with becoming dignity and did not once make a sound.

Dr. Foulke read the fifteenth chapter of the first epistle to the Corinthians, after which he prayed at length, asking divine blessing for all present, especially the president and his bride.

The sixty-fourth hymn was then sung, after which a collection was taken up, to which President Cleveland contributed a crisp new $5 note.

The sermon was preached by Dr. Foulke, who [illegible] his text the first and second verses of the fifteenth chapter of St. Paul's epistle to the Corinthians: "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received and wherein ye stand; by which also ye are saved if ye keep in mind what I have preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain." The discourse was an orthodox argument as to the truth of the death and resurrection of Christ and lasted a little over half an hour.

AFTER CHURCH

The president and his party were the first to leave the church. They at once entered their carriages and were driven to the cottage of Senator Davis, where they dined. Mrs. Cleveland wore a [illegible] black silk dress trimmed with jet beads, a braided straw colored bonnet and black gloves. She looked strikingly handsome and on her entrance excited a murmur of admiration. The president wore the conventional broadcloth suit, with a silk hat and tan colored kid gloves. He carried his usual light cane.

After luncheon the president and his wife walked over to the next cottage, which is occupied by Maj. N. B. Hill, purchasing agent of the Baltimore & Ohio company. He introduced Mrs. Cleveland to Mr. and Mrs. Hill, and after being joined by Col. and Mrs. Lamont the entire party walked through the fields back of the cottages and spent over an hour gathering wild flowers, with which the ladies filled their arms.

It is understood that the president and Col. Lamont will have a general trouting expedition to-morrow, and that Col. Lamont will return to Washington by Tuesday morning. The date of the president's return has not yet been announced.

AN APPEAL FOR PROHIBITION

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Allow me the space in your paper to set certain critics right in one or two points in my W. C. T. U. report this evening.

First. I was only one of a committee of six who were appointed to interview the legislative candidates. Five candidates fell to my share and I interviewed them.

Second—These critics seem to think that the W. C. T. U. is a prohibition organization. That is not true. The W. C. T. U. organization is made up of republican, democratic and prohibition ladies. And these political questions are sometimes warmly discussed by the members. But there is one question which we are not only agreed upon, but are pledged upon, that is not to support any man who will not pledge himself to vote and work for temperance.

Now, Mr. Editor, many of my democratic and republican W. C. T. U. sisters honestly believed that their favorite candidates would not only sign the pledge, but would be glad of the opportunity to record their names for God and home and native land, and I am sure this has been a severe shock to some of our good, pure sisters who, like some of our editors, honestly believed that prohibition could only come to us through one or the other of the good old parties. They were not aware of the fact that the great whisky power holds its strong hand at the throat of both the democratic and republican parties, and that they dare not say yea nor nay. I think, Mr. Editor, that will prove that in this particular the zeal of the ladies was tempered by political sagacity. These are times, my friends, that are trying the souls of men and women. These are times that bring to the front all that is good, best and purest in manhood and womanhood. We are now upon the eve of a great crisis—a crisis which will burst upon our state to-morrow like a thunderbolt, a crisis to be recorded in the history of Oregon long to be remembered and not to be forgotten. And this great struggle is only a repetition of forty years ago. Forty years ago he or she who dared to claim the odious name of abolitionist was branded as an outcast and a criminal. No [illegible] public house or church dared to open a door for protection to those despised agitators. And yet these fearless men and women went forth, trusting in God, and fought that great black curse of our nation that hung about us like a funeral pall. To-day the prohibitionists have a greater curse to fight than ever was slavery to our nation. A curse that annually slays 100,000 human beings, and robs and poisons the blood of six times that number of innocent and helpless children. This is a dark picture, my friends, but the subject is of Utopian darkness, and nothing but prohibition and a prohibition party can or will eradicate this disgraceful curse from our nation. And let me repeat again and again that we are come to stay and are prepared to fight it out on this plan. And now I beseech all ministers of the gospel, all Christian men and women, and all those who are cursed with the appetite for strong drink, to come and assist us in this, our first great battle, to be fought to-morrow. Our friends in the East are anxiously looking westward with hopes and prayers for our success. Let us not disappoint them.

MRS. OWENS ADAIR.

The Oregonian.

PORTLAND, MONDAY, JUNE 7, 1886.

AN ILLUSTRATION OF RING POLITICS.

One of the characteristic tricks of ring management came to light in Portland on Saturday afternoon. An account of the trick and of the exposure of it is given in the statement made by Mr. J. L. Reeder, published in THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, and republished in this paper to-day.

It is well known that the bosses of the republican ring, the chief engineers of the machine, had set their hearts on defeating the nomination of Judge Waldo for re-election. This brought about a struggle in the convention between the ring managers and the delegates from many parts of the state, and Waldo was renominated in spite of the ring. In its comments next day THE OREGONIAN noted the fact that the delegates had resented ring dictation to this extent, and shortly afterwards it warned the friends of Waldo that the managers and bosses would still try to beat him by electing his opponent. Messrs. Hirsch and Simon expressed themselves with special bitterness against Waldo, and now the fact is developed that Simon, though chairman of the republican state central committee, is devoting himself specially to an effort to beat him. It is a new thing for the chairman of a state committee to use the advantages which such position gives him to defeat part of the ticket which he, by acceptance of this trust, is bound or should be bound to support faithfully, in its entirety.

This is a very good illustration of the average methods of ring management under the usurpation that controls the republican party of Oregon. The whole business is selfish, faithless, personal interests and private piques govern everything on this basis nominations are dictated and almost always controlled, and when not controlled the candidates are marked for slaughter in the election. It may be supposed that this insidious and treacherous effort to beat Waldo is being "worked" in all parts of the state under direction of the chairman of the committee, through these fraudulent tickets sent out to all parts, accompanied by instructions as to their use by those who can be depended on.

Since the chairman of the republican state central committee is a "bolter" it cannot be so great a sin for the lay members of the party to bolt too. So let everybody bolt. The right thing, then, to do is to vote against or refuse to vote for those whom the gang are particularly anxious to elect, beginning with Cornelius, and, not forgetting Marston, running down to the bosses and tools of the ring in this county, where the headquarters of the gang is situated. Exposure of this treacherous attempt against Waldo will no doubt redound very greatly to his advantage. An account of the trick has been telegraphed to every portion of the state reached by wire, and Waldo's friends will everywhere look out for his interests, prepared to retaliate upon those candidates whom the ringmasters are specially anxious to elect.

ENFORCE THE LAW.

The new election law—sections 47 and 48—declares that "in all incorporated cities and towns in this state no person shall approach or stand within one hundred feet of the polls, when open and receiving votes, except the elector desiring to vote, and but one elector shall be allowed to approach the polls within one hundred feet at the same time." There is an exception which permits one challenger from each political party, selected by the party, to stand at the polls, but no other person. But "the judges shall, if requested, permit the respective candidates, or some person selected by a candidate, or one or more, not to exceed three persons on a side, to be present in the room where the judges are, during the time of receiving and counting the votes."

The law makes it the duty of the judges of election to enforce order at the polls, including the provision that no more than one elector at a time shall approach within one hundred feet and sheriff, deputy sheriffs, constables and policemen are commanded to "execute the order as though it had been issued by a magistrate in due form of law." "If no sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable or policemen be present, the judges may appoint special constables to execute their orders."

In ring circles in this city it is said that this law is not to be enforced. It isn't considered "practicable" or "necessary." But who made the ring managers judges of such a matter? It is the right of citizens to demand that the law be enforced, and it is the duty of judges of election to enforce it. If not enforced the election may be invalidated. The ring is not going to control the legislature to be elected to-day, and compliance with the law will be a necessary condition to the counting of the votes for governor, as well as to the seating of members of the legislature. It will be well to comply with the law, though compliance may perhaps diminish the chances of the ring managers in the matter of bulldozing and buying votes.

Judge Logan, of Springfield, Ill., was once opposed to Lincoln in a horse case. On the day of the trial Logan dressed himself in extreme haste and put on his shirt with the bosom at the back, a linen coat concealing the blunder. Logan dazzled the jury with his knowledge of horse points and as the day was sultry, took off his coat and summed up in his shirt sleeves. Lincoln, sitting behind him, took in the situation, and when his turn came remarked to the jury, "Gentlemen, Mr. Logan has been trying for over an hour to make you believe that he knows more about horses than the honest old farmers who [illegible] and now, gentlemen, isn't it [illegible]" [illegible] Logan out of his chair and [illegible] him with his back to the jury and the crowd, at the same time flipping up the [illegible] and showing the collar, "what dependence can you place in his horse knowledge when he has not [illegible] enough to put on his [illegible]" [illegible] has sense enough [illegible] but he has not [illegible] enough [illegible] him from asking the community to give him their votes on the plea that [illegible] his shirt washed by a Chinaman.

The law allows three persons from each party to be present in the room during receiving and counting of the votes. Let there be special vigilance against ring methods at every poll. It is part of the ring programme to falsify the vote after it is cast, as well as to commit frauds through spurious ballots and other devices. Watch the count! The ring programme includes all criminal methods by which the will of the people may be foiled.

Do your own voting to-day. Inform the ring politician that you are entirely able to transact that little business without dictation from him. Tell him that his "ticket" has no claims whatever upon you. Inform him that you don't care a fig for his plea of "party regularity," and invite him to take a walk, while you attend to your own business of preparing a ticket for yourself.

The polls are to be opened to-day at 8 A. M. and continue open until 6 P. M. Proclamation as to opening of the polls shall be made by the judges thirty minutes before the opening, and the same length of time before closing the same. The judges may, in their discretion, have a recess of one hour at 12 o'clock, proclamation of the same being made.

Now is the time for the "vest pocket voter" to make effective his protest against ring candidates and ring politics. When his little "snow flake" is taken from the box, in place of the names of ring candidates there will appear as substitutes sundry beautiful crystals whose admirable tracery will reveal the names of the "other fellows."

Mr. D. P. Thompson was a candidate before the republican convention for the nomination for the governorship. Several ring papers declared that he was "THE OREGONIAN'S candidate," but other ring papers, after Cornelius had been nominated, asserted Thompson was "defeated" by the action of the editor of THE OREGONIAN, who went among the delegates saying that Thompson could not be elected." The simple fact was that THE OREGONIAN did not want Thompson nominated, largely because it knew that the ring would "knife" him, and very probably beat him. The effort to defeat Waldo may be taken as sufficient proof that this judgment was correct. The gang of politicians known as the Portland ring, of which J. H. Mitchell is the head, will support nobody whom they cannot expect to control. Hence Cornelius was their man in the convention. Hence Cornelius, if elected, will be deputy governor for the ring.

The Rhode Island legislature has enacted a very stringent prohibitory law. The penalty for selling or manufacturing liquor in violation of the act is $200 for the first offense. For the second offense of manufacturing the penalty is four months' imprisonment. To enforce this law a state police is provided, with a chief constable, elected by the two houses of the legislature in joint convention, holding office for three years and receiving a salary of $2,000 and expenses. A "civil damage" law is also incorporated in the statute. The new amendment will go into operation on the 1st of July.

Blaine delivered a big speech on home rule last week, and now the subject will engross Cleveland's attention.

STATE OF OREGON,
MULTNOMAH COUNTY. } ss.

I, J. L. Reeder, being duly sworn, say I am a resident of Sauvie's Island in Multnomah County, O[illegible]; that I have been appointed one of the judges of election for Columbia precinct, in said county; that on this 5th day of June, 1886, I came to Portland for the purpose of obtaining some information concerning the new election law; that while at the County Clerk's office I inquired for tickets, and was referred to Joseph Simon; [illegible] and after some conversation with him concerning politics he took me into his back office. He then handed me a package sealed up which he said was a package of regular republican tickets and he also handed me the [illegible] package and said [illegible] to take it [illegible] and not to open it till I got to the place of voting. I took the sealed packages to Mr. Bingham's law office and he [illegible] the tickets. I told him what Mr. Simon had requested, but he said the object of sealing up the tickets till I got them home was probably to prevent [illegible] them till they reached their destination. He thereupon tore off the wrappers, and on inspection said to me, "This is not right; R. S. Strahan is not the regular nominee for Supreme Judge," and after saying some other things about the [illegible] of the Republican State Central Committee falsifying the Republican ticket asked me to make an affidavit of the above facts.

I further swear that the ticket hereunto attached is one of those I received from Mr. Joseph Simon as aforesaid.

Another Campaign Lie Nailed.

To the Voters of Multnomah County:

I learn that political enemies are saying that when I was County Assessor eighteen years ago I favored the rich, in their assessments. Such charges are absolutely false in every particular and are made only by unprincipled men who, it seems, are willing to resort to anything to accomplish their object. Believe them not. Endorse me by your votes and I will prove your best friend. Yours truly, JOHN COSTELLO.

To the Voters of Multnomah County:

My name is before you for your suffrages at the coming election. My many friends know [illegible] most emphatically oppose the method of buying votes and voters, either by doing so with whisky, money and expect to have the opposition [illegible] candidates and voters that believe in that method of securing votes. I earnestly request [illegible] all that think my position is right, and I assure you if elected sheriff I will do my duty at all hazards and under all circumstances and not use the office entrusted to me for the benefit of any man or party, but will serve this county to the best of my ability. I am not and have never been the tool of any clique or ring, but have been an independent citizen and feel that I have the same privilege as any other citizen of the state and the same right to ask for your votes as any other candidate has to demand them because he is on a certain ticket. You have the same right in choosing officers as you have in choosing other servants. If you think the methods employed of late years in this city by voting men like sheep is correct vote for one of the other candidates. If you do not approve of it then vote for me. I have no ward strikers at work at the polls but depend on your putting my name on your tickets where it is not there. You have as much right to substitute names on your tickets as some of the party managers have. And I have the assurance that a great many will avail themselves of that privilege this year. Wishing you [illegible] Very truly yours, A. T. WRIGHT.

A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.—Reverend Phillips Brooks, the eminent pulpit orator of Boston, arrived in this city by the Oregon, late Saturday night and was prevailed upon to preach in the Trinity church yesterday. His coming had not been heralded and when it was read in the morning that he would speak at the early service many were loth to believe that it was the Phillips Brooks who had come among us unawares. But Mr. Brooks it was. The church was crowded to hear the man whose splendid oratory is so famous. His sermon just filled all anticipations. Mr. Brooks is a man of fine presence, say fifty years, but in the full vigor of fine physical manhood. He speaks with tremendous nervous force and so rapidly that the hearer scarce has time to take in the full excellence of his discourse. There is in his voice and manner an absorbing fascination. An audience listens, eager, then enraptured. Rarely have Portlanders had such a feast. THE OREGONIAN has the sermon in type, but unfortunately pressure upon space compels postponement of its publication. Mr. Brooks leaves to-day for Victoria, returning Wednesday and remaining here one day. He is a member of the Raymond excursion party, but left San Francisco one steamer ahead of them.

ROUGHLY HANDLED.—Yesterday at 5 P. M. Charles Johnson was arrested by policeman McCabe in Oliver Furey's saloon on First street between D and E on a charge of disorderly conduct. Shortly after his arrest Johnson knocked at the cell door and on it being opened it was found he was bleeding freely from three wounds in the muscles of the right arm. Policemen James and Cole, who were present, stopped the flow of the vital fluid and bound up the wound. It seems Johnson has been cleaning up the saloon for Furey of mornings for some time past. He claims Furey owes him $5 for his services, and yesterday entered the place and demanded a settlement. As the $5 was not forthcoming Johnson proceeded to satisfy his claim by pocketing the saloon keeper's spoons, forks, etc., from the lunch table. This led to a row during which Johnson says a crowd jumped him. At the time he was arrested it was not known that he was hurt. Further developments in the case are looked for.

FISHERMAN DROWNED.—J. S. Leabo, captain of boat 28, of the Eagle cannery, was drowned near the wreck of the Republic, at Sand island, at 11 o'clock Friday morning. He had begun laying out the net, when a breaker upset the boat. He was carried off partly entangled in the net; the boat puller dived and coming up clambered on the capsized boat. Several boats were in the immediate neighborhood, two being not more than fifty yards away, but it is said made no effort to save the drowning man. Boat No. 26 of J. G. Megler's cannery, was about 500 yards away and the occupants seeing the disaster came up and succeeded in saving the boat puller and getting the boat and net. They got within twenty feet of Leabo when he sank for the last time. He was in the 44th year of his age, his father, J. R. Leabo, is a resident of East Portland.

PROPOSED MILITIA ENCAMPMENT.—An encampment of the First Regiment of Oregon state militia is in contemplation, to last three or four days, early next month, and to be either at Ilwaco or Vancouver. Business men of this city and transportation companies have promised them aid in carrying out the scheme. The officers are desirous of holding this encampment for the benefit of the companies in the way of better drill and discipline. Companies A, E, F, G and K, with Co. H of Astoria will likely go into camp if properly encouraged. This they certainly should receive from the business men and citizens of Portland as a fitting acknowledgment of the promptness of the response of the battalion to the call of duty and the gratuitous services they so cheerfully rendered during the excitement a few months ago.

WASTE OF WEARING APPAREL.—A Front street firm received last week from Hillsboro a consignment of butter that deserves mention. Instead of using clean butter cloth, the economical housewife used for wrapping what she probably had no other use for. One chunk was surrounded by a piece of a man's colored shirt, another by a girl's apron and others by pieces of a girl's calico dress. All the cloth showed signs of long wear, and some of it had been in two close contact with a kitchen stove some time in the past. No trouble was taken in washing the cloths, for they bore unmistakable signs of age and dirt. Butter has been sent here in old underclothes, but to use a dress and apron for a few pounds of butter is a waste which only an ill fashioned Oregon butter maker would be guilty of.

INJURY TO A FIREMAN.—The alarm [illegible] o'clock yesterday morning was for a slight blaze at Honeyman's foundry. They had been casting very late the evening before, and it is supposed that a spark fell upon the roof, which after a time kindled. The damage to the building was slight, not more than $20 probably. Newton Patton, an extra fireman of hose company No. [illegible] met with a painful accident. While running to his hose cart he slipped and fell and the cart passed over his legs and body, bruising him severely, but breaking no bones. It is not thought that his injuries will prove serious.

KEEP THE BOYS OUT.—On the north side of the Mechanics pavilion is a plank near the sidewalk which is loose at one end. Yesterday three little boys by dint of pulling and squeezing managed to get under the building at this place. Some one had better attend to nailing this plank, because if boys go under the pavilion and smoke cigarettes there will be a good show for a big fire. While the plank is being nailed up any large knot holes in the building had better be plugged for the small boy will crawl through a knot hole to get any place where he should not go.

MEETING OF YOUNG MEN.—A good sized audience of young men gathered in the hall of the Young Men's Christian association yesterday afternoon to hear an address by Mr. E. W. Watkins on "Five Events in the Life of a Well Known Young Man." A large chorus choir of young men occupied the platform with Mr. Wm. Wadhams as leader and Dr. O. Royal as organist. Mr. Watkins referred to the bible incident of the prodigal son and drew from the familiar story many valuable and practical lessons of especial value to young men away from home.

STRANGE ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.—George Blackall, who was for many years proprietor of the Albion saloon on Yates street, in Victoria, appears determined to put an end to his existence. It is not long since he attempted to cut his throat with a razor, but made a botch of it. His last experiment in this direction was a novel one. He attempted to beat in his skull with a flat iron, inflicting several deep wounds on his forehead. The man, whose mind it is now apparent, is dangerously affected, is kept under surveillance.

SPORTSMAN'S ASSOCIATION ELECTION.—At the adjourned annual meeting of the Sportsman's Association of the Northwest the following officers were chosen: President, J. W. Whalley; first vice president, Dr. T. T. Smith; second vice president, F. Brooke; third vice president, M. D. Close; secretary and treasurer, H. G. McDonald; directors, H. H. Lewis, Dr. W. L. Chapman, W. J. Riley, J. W. Edwards, F. A. Strout, W. B. Blackwell, Theodore Davis, J. F. McNaught, L. Booth, J. J. Evans.

BUCKEYES.—There will be a meeting of the Buckeye society at the rooms of the G. A. R., at corner First and Salmon streets, on Tuesday evening, June 8, at 8 o'clock. A general fine time is expected. Good music, dancing, refreshments and toasts will be indulged in. All Ohio people are cordially invited to come.

BUILDING PHOTOGRAPHED.—The Young Men's Christian association has had its proposed new building photographed and copies placed on exhibition in store windows. It represents a magnificent structure, which would be a credit to this or any city of the land. It should be speedily erected as a monument of good will on the part of the citizens toward the young men who so largely contribute to the business prosperity of the city.

STEAMER OLYMPIAN.—Preparations are nearly finished on board the steamer Olympian, which is to make the first excursion of the season to the seashore on next Saturday. The Gates steering apparatus has been put in and the electric light is in splendid working order. She will be at the Ash street dock Thursday evening. Capt. Baily will be in command with Dan O'Neill as purser and Mr. Melville chief engineer.

QUICK TRANSIT.—Mr. F. H. Page received Saturday, over the Oregon Short Line, a car load of lemons from New York. They were shipped May 26 and came through in fine condition in the remarkably short space of ten days.

FROM THE MODERN WHIGS

PORTLAND, 6th of May

To the Voters of Multnomah County.—In prior addresses the modern whigs have set before the public the object and purposes of its work and the result sought to be accomplished by placing a clean ticket in the hands of the voter at this election. Our issue is with political rings, bossism in politics, and their pernicious results.

We ask you, intelligent voter, and you who take pride in voting a straight republican ticket, whether we are contending with real or imaginary evils? Will you not admit that the organization of the republican party in this county, is now under the control of a ring of men limited in number and representative of the office seeking class only.

Can you deny our assertion that primaries are fixed and conventions packed? That the will of the people at the primaries is nil while the wishes of the bosses are paramount to every interest? Is it not true that the delegates to our county and state conventions are free agents, are emasculated. That they represent no ideas of theirs nor of the public? That as delegates they live, move and have their being only through the rings. That their action is only the automatic movement of the "machine?" Will you deny that all candidates for lucrative offices give the machine a quid pro quo in the nominating convention? Do you believe these men are nominated because of special fitness? Will you deny that these candidates, imbued with "ring" morality and educated in machine ethics, will hesitate to make their election a subject of barter and sale? If you are thoughtful of matters political and honest with yourself you will admit the one and no deny the other. If you take issue with us, then we ask you to investigate and among others, you will perceive the remarkable acrobatic feat of the republican candidate for county judge who, sitting upon a fence stretches out one hand towards the workingman and says: "I am in sympathy with the anti Chinese movement, I was not a member of the citizens' committee of fifteen nor did I take part in that movement." With the other hand reaching out for the voters in Companies G and K and other militia companies, he assures them of his heartfelt interest in the militia organization of the state, of the necessity, in view of our labor troubles, of a more efficient militia and a pledge that if elected, and by support of the militia he will use his influence in their behalf.

Again we call attention to the nefarious and disreputable effort of the republican candidate for county school superintendent to capture the vote of the saloon men (see OREGONIAN of June 5). Now you straight party men, who see nothing dishonorable in allying yourselves with this ring, come with us and examine the fountain head of this organization, your political alma mater, and mayhaps we can discover the cause of the impurity of the party stream. If the fountain is pure the stream will be undefiled. The fountain will give character to the stream that emanates from it.

The chairman of the state central committee of the republican party is the Hon. Joseph Simon, of this city. It is his duty to receive and expend all moneys contributed and paid for campaign purposes. He authorizes the printing of ballots and is the executor of the express and published will of the state convention. He is the guardian of the integrity and symmetry of the party organization in the performance of his duties he is supposed to carry out the will of the party, not his own. Now you party men, who run with the machine hungering and thirsting for the fruit of nominating conventions, how do you feel when you realize the cold naked fact that the executor has violated his trust, has attempted to sell out his party, has attempted to nullify the action of the state convention, has attempted under the cloak of his fiduciary relation to substitute his will for the will of the whole republican party of the state. We refer to the substitution of the name of the democratic candidate for supreme judge for the republican candidate on the republican ticket, as testified to by Mr. J. L. Reeder in his affidavit published in yesterday's OREGONIAN. Now you straight republicans who have been sneering at the modern whigs as traitors, etc., we ask you now who is the traitor to the republican party, your guardian who sells you out, or the modern whigs who put before the people an open, honest ticket without money and without price, devoid of barter and sale, put before you from honest motives for the public good and with no ulterior purpose. Citizens, too many of you, are ready to yield without a struggle. You say "What is the use, the ring will have its own way," but we say that if every voter in this county will act upon his honest conviction, and cast off all fear of the "ring," unite in voting the modern whig ticket, the power of that corrupt organization will be completely broken.

THE MODERN WHIGS.

A STATEMENT REPRINTED.

On the 21st of May the editor of THE OREGONIAN was asked by telegraph to send to The Voice, prohibition organ published at New York, a statement of his views about the approaching election in Oregon, and particularly what he thought about the prohibition effort. His statement, as published in The Voice, has been greatly misrepresented by ring newspapers in Oregon; therefore, in order that it may be seen just what the statement was, it is herewith reproduced:

PORTLAND, Or., May 21.—The general election in Oregon will be held June 7. In the absence of definite issues between the old parties there will be a great deal of independent voting. The prohibition party will get the benefit of a large part of these withdrawals from the old parties. No doubt the prohibitionists will draw more heavily from the republican party than from the democratic. This is the first real effort of prohibitionists to organize the party in Oregon. Their leaders claim at least 6000 votes, which would be about 10 per cent of the entire poll. I think this an overestimate and should say that their vote will be 3000 or 4000. St. John received less than 500.

It is quite possible that Oregon may become a prohibition state as soon as the question can be got definitely before the people. Henceforth it certainly will be a permanent factor in the politics of the state.

Both old parties in their conventions pledged themselves to submit a prohibitory amendment to a vote of the people, but there is increased distrust since the republicans of New York refused to keep a similar pledge, and this will swell the prohibition vote.

In Oregon the purpose to assert independence of republican rings on the one side and disapproval of the course pursued during the anti Chinese agitation by the leading democratic candidate on the other will tend to send voters to the third party, and many will vote the prohibition ticket as the readiest thing offered. The contest between the old parties will be close—so close that the result cannot be predicted.

THE NEW COMPANY AT THE CASINO

The new company engaged for the summer season at the Casino arrived safely on Saturday's steamer. It is composed of some really excellent material. Miss Louise Manfred, prima donna, and C. M. Dyke, baritone of the Dyke Opera Company, having just arrived in San Francisco from the East, were promptly engaged for the present season. Miss Marchi has been very successful for two years as the second lady at the Tivoli in San Francisco, from which come also James T. Kelly, the comedian and the two Vanbergs, respectively first and second tenor. Messrs. Tenbrooke and Bishop are also comedians of merit and [illegible]. These with an exceptionally fine chorus will form the ensemble of the present company. Lafontaine, of operatic fame, is the stage manager, while we will have Kinross as musical director, in itself a guarantee of the excellence of the performance. The repertoire will include "The Three Black Mantles," "La Fille de Madam Angot," "Manola," "The Black Hussar," "Mascot," "Chimes of Normandy," and almost certainly "Nanon" and "Prince Methusalem" or "The Queen's Lace Handkerchief." The management of the Casino have had patent ventilators introduced so as to render it comfortable even during the hottest weather. The scenery and costumes are all new and manufactured especially for the present engagement and every possible effort will be made by the management both in the excellence of the productions and in their novelty to excel, if possible, the performances of the past season. The opening has been deferred until Thursday, June 10th, so that an absolutely perfect performance shall be given. The box plan will be open to-morrow, Tuesday, at McKercher & Thompson's.

WARNING TO CANDIDATES.

PORTLAND, June 6

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

The leading members of the ring having asserted that "kicking or no kicking," they intend to elect Steel for senator, it behooves other republican nominees to see that they are not traded off for his benefit. It is an open secret that the ring intend to use all methods, fair or unfair, legal or criminal, to accomplish their purpose, and the duplicity and dishonesty they may be expected to employ are exemplified in Joe Simon's course in substituting Strahan for Waldo on republican tickets for use in outside precincts. (See Mr. Reeder's affidavit in THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN.) That action, by the chairman of the state central committee is in keeping with several others that have caused the present revolt against the republican managers of this county. Candidates see to it that you are not traded off for Steel.

REPUBLICAN.

CALL FOR PRAYER.

All Christian ladies of whatever name are earnestly requested to spend as much of the day to-day as possible at the W. C. T. U. headquarters on First street near Columbia. It is desired that a prayer meeting be in progress from 7 30 this morning until 6 P. M., with the view to strengthening the hands of those who take up the arduous duty of visiting the various polling places in the city.

PRESIDENT W. C. T. U.

That tired feeling is overcome, and appetite and strength given by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

END OF THE TOURNAMENT.

Yesterday the second annual tournament of the Sportmen's Association of the Northwest drew to a close at City View park. Match No. 8, individual championship shoot for the championship badge of the association, valued at $250, at seven single Peoria black birds, seven American clay birds and seven Cleveland blue rocks, which began Friday, was won by J. J. Evans. Following is the score:

E. W. Moore	[illegible]	McDonald	12
J. J. Evans	19	Davis
W. T. Muir	[illegible]	Harker	[illegible]
H. H. Lewis	12	H. Dodge
J. Collin	11	W. McNaughton
H. T. Hudson		C. M. Donald	6
F. Brooks	10	Chas. Woodman	13
F. J. Stewart	9	L. Chapman	15
G. W. Edwards	9	F. Ricky	10
F. Thorn

Match No. 9 for teams of two from each club, one man of each team to shoot at 10 single Peoria black birds at 18 yards, the other to shoot at five pair of Cleveland blue rocks at 15 yards rise.

J. J. Evans and C. Bundy 15 and J. W. Moore and W. T. Muir, both made scores of 16 each for first.

A. Harker and W. McDonald and T. Davis and F. L. Thorn both made scores of 15 each for second.

In the shoot off Muir and Moore won the first prize. Thorn and Davis won the second prize.

Match No. 10 at seven live pigeons, sweepstake shooting 30 yard rise, purse $108 50.

J. B. Jackson and E. W. Moore made clean scores and on the shoot off they kept even for 13 birds and then decided to divide the prize.

Match No. 11, consolidation sweepstakes, at 10 single targets, shooter's choice, 18 yards rise, purse $ 3 50.

F. J. Stewart	8	C. Rinnlaub
M. McNaughton		A. L. Ricky
L. H. Nichol		C. Woodman
I. W. Vaughn		J. W. Edwards
F. Brooks		W. L. Chapman
F. R. Paterson		H. L. Geran
J. Pacquet

In the shoot-off F. J. Stewart won first prize, W. L. Chapman second prize and J. W. Edwards third prize.

There were a number of minor matches between individuals on their own account and for private purses, making the sport very interesting.

The most interesting match of the day was the one between J. W. Whalley and A. B. Ricky. They tied on [illegible] out of [illegible] birds and kept shooting and tying till they were exhausted and the ground was flowing with blood and the air so full of feathers that a snowstorm seemed in progress. The contestants at last agreed to call it even and quit and returned to the city loaded with glory and pigeons.

FIRST SIGHT OF SALT WATER.

The excursion to the Seaside by the Christian church and Sunday school on the fast and favorite Telephone, next Saturday, will be the first of the season. It is to be regretted that the number going with them is limited to 400 as great effort has been put forth by the management to make it as pleasurable a trip as possible, and a study of the points they take in must convince anyone that it could not well be improved on. It is not intended for such as wish to stop over night on the way, but is solely an alone what it purports to be, an excursion to the ocean beach, going to all points of interest both on the Oregon and Washington side without a stop save a few minutes to transfer at Astoria, and then return the same day by moonlight, giving a choice of either six hours at Ft. Clatsop to visit the beach, bathe in the ocean, gather sea shells and dig clams, or five hours at Ft. Canby to inspect the lighthouse, the fort with its big guns, the fine view seaward from Cape Hancock, a stroll on the sand beach catching fishes in the sea, with many other attractions, or over four hours at Ilwaco to visit the salmon cannery with ample time to take a long stroll on north beach, dig clams and hunt crabs. The price of tickets, $1 to Astoria and Fort Clatsop, with only 25 cents extra for the round trip ride to the beach and return in wagons, and $1 50 to Ft. Canby and Ilwaco with no extras, is fixed as low as it is so that the trip might indeed be a real benefit, the overflow from their excursion of May 27. It is not at all probable that another will be given at so low a rate. A few tickets are yet unsold at Prentice's.

PERSONAL.

T. N. Ford of Olympia, late treasurer of Washington territory, is registered at the St. Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ohle returned Saturday from the East and will go down to Clatsop late this week to take charge of the Seaside House.

General S. S. Burdett, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, informs the officials of the Northern Pacific that he and his staff will return from the San Francisco encampment via Portland and the Northern Pacific.

Mr. Lloyd Wells, the well known contractor, left yesterday with his family over the Northern Pacific and Royal routes for an extended tour through the Eastern states and Canada and to visit his old home from which he has been absent twenty-three years. They will visit Washington and points of interest in that section and will return by the southern route, stopping at Salt Lake and all the principal points on the route. They will be absent about five months.

THE LAY OF THE SCRATCHER.

Election day has come again
And dirty schemes are hatching
But some who itch for office will
Be cured by honest scratching.

When ringsters try to rule the roost
By schemes and frauds outrageous
Then honest men secure a boost
And scratching is contagious.

To-day the men who love their state
Must mutilate their tickets
Must dare the bosses' power and hate,
And scratch like thorny thickets.

Let patriots now their ballots take,
And well apply the Fabers—
Scratch for their own and country's sake
And vote for honest neighbors.

Election day has come again
And dirty schemes are hatching
But many an itch for office will
Be cured by honest scratching.

NOTES FROM WASHINGTON CITY.

The Proposed Building at Portland—Arms for Oregon—Lands Surveyed in Oregon and Washington.

WASHINGTON May 30—As the session approaches an end the anxiety of members and senators who are interested in special legislation naturally increases In this phase of legislation none is more conspicuous than that relating to public building enterprises. None, too, is so [illegible] or so persistently criticised, unless the river and harbor allowances are excepted and as the result those having such measures in charge are called upon for defensive means to protect their charges or to repel unfair criticism Included in the pending measures is that presented by Senator Dolph for an appropriation of $300 000 for a new building at Portland. This measure is not singled out for criticism, but is only attacked as a part of a whole In consequence of the attacks upon the action of the committee on public buildings for what is termed extravagance in the recommendations for public buildings during this session a comparative statement in the nature of a defense has been prepared in which many interesting facts are presented as bearing upon the case First of all then, as to Oregon.

The only recommendation for the state made in the present congress is that already voted for Portland An examination of the record also discloses the fact that during the past ten years Oregon has not received one dollar for public building purposes although appropriations have been made with a liberal hand for other communities the aggregate involved being far up in the millions The average sum allowed by the last three congresses for public buildings is $[illegible] as follows Forty sixth congress $6 238 10 forty seventh $9 91 00 forty-eighth $6 916 834 The amount involved in the bills already passed by the house is $1 725,000 while the bills passed by the senate have an aggregate of over $[illegible] 000 000 The total allowance mentioned above for the present session is made up from three sources First there is allowed $1[illegible] 4 500 for extensions of limit of cost for buildings already authorized or additions of land or rooms to old buildings or sites The sum of $[illegible] 000 recommended for the buildings which secured a favorable report from the committee in part [illegible] but were not reached for final action [illegible] as the total for new buildings [illegible] committee, $1 545 000

Certain acts passed by the legislative assembly of Washington have been held by one of the territorial courts to be void for the reason that the objects of the acts were not expressed in the respective titles to each of the acts [illegible] the title of each of them were to amend certain sections of the code, merely specifying the number thereof It is represented that injurious confusion will result from a condition of uncertainty until the matter can be definitely determined by the supreme court of the territory or the supreme court of the United States and accordingly the committee on territories have been urged to recommend the passage of a measure by congress to validate such acts of the legislative assembly at Washington.

The senate committee on military affairs in recommending the passage of the bill providing for a settlement of the account for ordnance and ordnance stores between Oregon and Washington territory make a report in which this tribute is paid to the state

The situation of Oregon is such as to have exposed that state to repeated Indian raids and her people have suffered from uprisings and depredations to such an extent that the general government can well afford to make good this demand of Washington territory upon her It has often happened that the resistance which Oregon has made was no less in defense of her own territory than of the country touching her borders and the general government has not been as liberal in the distribution of ordnance in her behalf as it has with Washington territory

An examination of the statutes shows that Washington territory received 2 000 arms and 100 000 cartridges while Oregon received only half of that allowance Oregon is to-day without the ordnance supplies necessary to properly and effectively equip her militia and yet the brunt of a defense of the people of the far northwest against Indians would fall upon that state and the dictates of economy and prudence no less than a regard for the lives of a large population exposed to Indian raids suggest that Oregon be placed in a position to dispense—in any emergency—with the support of government forces always expensive and many times ineffectual because of the time occupied in the transportation of regular troops from long distances to the scene of hostilities

"In the judgment of your committee it is both wise and humane to place Oregon and Washington territory in a position to protect themselves against Indian raids which can be best done by a well equipped force of militia"

The secretary of war also [illegible] such action by congress

The secretary of the interior reports that the total number of acres of public lands surveyed in Oregon during the last year was 2 868, 18 acres making the total surveyed [illegible] 617 00 There remains to be surveyed of public lands and Indian lands 21 888 36 acres

In Washington Land surveyed during year 1,223,[illegible]06 acres total surveyed [illegible] 01 acres, and remaining to be surveyed 23 6[illegible]1 8 acres Hon Binger Hermann has joined in a minority report against the action of the committee on territories in passing adversely upon the Harrison bill for the admission of South Dakota and urging the passage of that measure by the house or in any event its passage with such amendment as will make it an enabling act for the benefit of the people of South Dakota.

The wife of Senator Dolph will spend the summer in Europe The senator remains here until the adjournment when he will go west on a business trip It might be said right here that the senator is one of the most democratic in the senate His tastes are simple although rumor says his means are ample and his children attend the public schools of this city

EPISCOPAL CONVOCATION.

ASTORIA June 4

FIRST DAY

The convocation organized after litany service this morning at 9 when thirteen clergymen and eight laymen answered to their names The committees on claims of clerical and lay delegates to seats reported twenty clergymen and seventeen laymen as entitled to seats

The right reverend the bishop of Washington territory being present was invited to and accorded the privileges of this convocation

The standing committee reported that the testimonials of Rev F C Johnson were approved Mr Johnson was advanced to the priesthood on Sept 22, 1885

The usual committees were appointed and in the course of the day these committees reported

The following resolution moved by Mr L H Thornton was adopted

Resolved That the convocation of Oregon in session at Grace church, Astoria, the 4th day of June, 1886 respectfully requests the general convention to take measures for the organization of a system of appellate courts of the church.

The committee on the Episcopal endowment fund reports as follows That the plan recently set forth by the bishop of Oregon for the increase of the Episcopal fund commands our cordial approval; and we recommend that the circular issued by the bishop and the committee be spread upon the minutes of this convocation By this plan it is hoped and expected to raise $10 000 for the increase of this fund within the next three years

The committee on the Columbia Churchman made their report which recommended that 1500 copies of the paper be printed and that a large number be distributed throughout the jurisdiction of Oregon and Washington that the price be reduced to 50 cents a year and that the clergy are urged to furnish literary contributions for the paper

The committee on Christian Education reported the very encouraging condition of the four diocesan schools

A committee was appointed to prepare a new form of Parochial Report

Rev Geo W Foote was elected clerical delegate to general convention

The following resolution on motion of Dr Eaton was adopted

Resolved That the clergy of this jurisdiction do what they may to introduce a branch or branches of the Church Temperance society to work upon the lines of the Church of England Temperance Society On motion a committee of five was appointed to confer with the general secretary of the Church Temperance society and to take such action as will best lead to the carrying out of the purposes of this resolution. The following were appointed as such committee Rev Messrs John W Sellwood Foote Potwine MacLean and Dr Eaton

Adjourned until Saturday after morning prayer

The other services held in connection with the convocation have been as follows On Wednesday evening when Rev Mr Foote of Trinity church Portland was the preacher On Thursday Ascension Day at 10 a m when Bishop Paddock of Washington Territory delivered the sermon On Thursday evening when Bishop Morris delivered his annual address which was even more than usual full of interest and instruction On Friday evening a Missionary Meeting when Bishop Morris Bishop Paddock and the Rev Mr [illegible] delivered addresses

AN APPEAL TO THE VOTERS BY A MODERN WHIG

PORTLAND 6th of June

The campaign now drawing to a close demands the attention of every citizen and that all honest voters unite in the common effort to overthrow the corrupt methods that have so long controlled the politics of this county The lamentable condition of our politics must be at this time apparent to all intelligent citizens A powerful combination of men exists [illegible] organized efforts the [illegible] Multnomah county has been controlled by majorities ranging [illegible] to about 1300 in favor of the candidates whose names were [illegible] whom these results [illegible] political methods [illegible] defeat in the [illegible]

This association [illegible] designated a ring and its purposes are accomplished by its organization and effective work within the republican party but also by controlling at times both republican and democratic conventions. It often happens that tickets prepared in this way present many unobjectionable names but the ring will combine to elect those who will best serve their own selfish ends and thus many good candidates are sacrificed

The modern whigs do not intend to attack either the one party or the other as parties but seek to overthrow a common enemy to both a ring that must inevitably destroy the usefulness of the party if it is permitted to exercise these objectionable methods.

It is apparent that the existence of this ring [illegible] to advance private and personal ends at the expense of the public good, primarily they attempt to control the judiciary of the county and state and its administrative and executive officers thus indirectly securing to themselves a clientage whose interests more often than those of any other clash with the law and the public welfare

Thus the various district and county offices have become of the greatest importance to the ring and no better estimate can be formed of the value of these offices than the prices placed upon these nominations and (by common report) paid the ring by the various candidates to secure their election By common report a county clerk pays $3000 a sheriff $5,000 and a prosecuting attorney $2500

By reason of the influence of this ring in the past many good citizens are disposed to submit to the apparently inevitable and say that it is useless to try to overcome such a foe. But to all such and to all who are desirous of seeing a clean administration of our public affairs in the interests of the people the modern whigs urge that now is a rare opportunity to effect such a result. The controlling strength of the ring is limited, and at the present time elements of discontent and disruption exist not only within the ring but also within the parties themselves A large class of voters are disposed to be independent of those interests which have heretofore influenced them, and most of the candidates are forsaking party lines for independent vote At such a time therefore it is evident that the united effort of all honest and intelligent voters will accomplish a good result. The well directed effort of a few hundred voters will change the whole character of our government for the better and it is to this end that the modern whigs have organized to select those candidates whose election will tend to defeat the ends and aims of the ring.

Voters the opportunity is before you take it

A MODERN WHIG

A NEW HELPER IN THE FIELD

At our Saturday evening prohibition meeting at W C T U hall we had with us Mrs M B Reese of Steubenville Ohio Mrs Reese was one of the original crusaders and is to-day one of the most vigorous prohibition advocates in the field having delivered ninety public addresses in eastern Washington territory and Idaho since the 1st of March organized six W C T U s six [illegible] leagues two Y W C T U s and gained hundreds of accessions to the rank and file of prohibition In [illegible] that time she was met by one of her crusade mates on her way to Vancouver and all hearts were cheered by her provident appearance and [illegible] rousing words at our last meeting of the campaign in Portland COM

Overland receipts include 8 0 bxs soap car white lead, car stoves 3 cars wagons car flour mill machinery car chair stock 1 cs cigars 100 cs lard 21 bxs mantels 12 cs scales 1 cs cigarettes 10 bbls whisky, 8 bbls 19 bxs 18 cans paint 10 cs can goods 25 cs sardines 10 bags hemp seed 20 butts tobacco 550 bxs bitters

Among the mills of the Eastern states a decided improvement in the outlook within a few weeks is reported Dealers in dye-stuff and other materials say that they are selling more than they have been The manufacturers are not taking wool in anticipation of future requirements but realize that prices are now low and seem likely to buy more liberally as soon as the new clip gets upon the market. Fear of serious and prolonged labor difficulties has for the most part passed away and, all things considered there is a fair amount of confidence in the near future So far as the cassimere mills are concerned contracts for heavy weight goods were made in reasonable amounts at satisfactory prices A small advance over last year's figures was obtained as a rule and the works are generally running in full Very few failures have occurred of late In the worsted branch of the business there is more to discourage factory owners The competition with imported fabrics and yarns is unusually keen, and the anticipations of the early spring have not been realized

FREIGHTS The Tillie E Starbuck large iron [illegible] is closed to S Bon[illegible] Quackenbush & Co for grain loading, leaving but one iron [illegible] in river open of the four [illegible] in port but two are certainly available for a [illegible] The market for iron is somewhat under [illegible] The grain route list shows up to 36 615 tons register

WHEAT—Foreign markets dull and easy Chicago and New York are a trifle better the [illegible] element having taken up the market at the low prices Locally a light business is doing just now Prices are the same as reported of late round quotations being $1 10 and $1 [illegible]0 for the two grades with a cent more possible The markets appear to have settled on this basis for a time and no immediate change is anticipated

OATS—Sales [illegible] and [illegible] is now the extreme for any business Shippers last purchases were at 38c a figure that would be difficult of duplication now Best feed is quoted 37½@39 The outlook is for a slightly lower range

MILLSTUFF—Stocks fair and demands nothing out of ordinary Values are steady because [illegible] a large shipping movement

POTATOES—Sales at $12 50 per ton or [illegible]c per 100 Demands are easily filled by arrivals

PROVISIONS—Eastern markets advanced to day Local stocks are generally fair and the market shows no change whatever Choice side meat is asked for

DRIED FRUIT—A shipment is occasionally made to San Francisco of apples while we have received prunes from the East Stocks of choice are low

BUTTER—In more than full supply and weak, few lots bringing over 1[illegible]½c

EGGS Easy at 1[illegible]c

CHICKENS—Quote $2 50@3 50

WOOL—Of late there has been active buying in the interior by representatives of local as well as Eastern interests The aggregate of sales must be large but there is no way of obtaining it. Buyers here have competed not a little and have forced up the market to a range not deemed justified by the more conservative operators Late sales were generally at 16@18½c but there are reports of even more being paid It has been said there was a buyer behind each water tank in the Eastern section This may be too much but it is certain that buyers are industrious There would appear no particular reason for the present activity except a belief that the markets are to go higher The telegraph has noted a better feeling East and abroad and mail reports have indicated the probability of as much At Boston there has been a large demand for Australian wools, with heavy sales Boston is actually sending Australian wool to London which will be offered at the next sales there This shows the cheapness of that wool in Boston as compared with London For the week ending May 29 the actual business done in Boston was a little better than noted for several weeks past The market wore a decidedly better tone because of the feeling that bottom prices had been touched A Boston report by mail says The advices from abroad still report the advance noted last week as being maintained and speak also of better feeling on fine wools in the London market This advance is evidence that manufacturers abroad are preparing for a large business and in placing heavy orders the increased demand has advanced the price of the wool but its effect on this market can only be very slight as the margin between the selling prices of imported and the cost of domestic yarns is too wide to be closed by this single advance and unless the very large importation of yarns can be curtailed in some way domestic manufacturers will be unable, in the face of the competition now going on to pay prices now asked much less submit to an advance

BEEF—Large dealers are buying little the most of them being largely supplied for some time to come Values are lower live being now quoted 3@3½c

MUTTON—The weakness already noted has developed into a decline 2[illegible] being now quoted.

So thoroughly identified with Hood's Sarsaparilla is not a catch line only but it is absolutely true of this preparation and it is as absolutely true that it can honestly be applied only to Hood's Sarsaparilla which is the very best tonic medicine and blood purifier Now reader prove it Take a bottle home and measure its contents You will find it to hold 100 teaspoonfuls Now read the directions and you will find that the average dose for persons of different ages is less than a teaspoonful Thus economy and strength are peculiar to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

I have been in poor health several years, suffering from indigestion restlessness in the night and in the morning I would get up with a very tired feeling After taking only a part of the first bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla I could rest well all night and feel refreshed when I awoke up I must say that Hood's Sarsaparilla is all it is recommended to be Mrs H D W[illegible] 11 East Mason Street Jackson Mich.
